thou blessed of the LORD;
wherefore standest thou without?
for I have prepared the house, and
room for the camels.
