

A close-up photograph of a large bush of white roses. The flowers are in various stages of bloom, with some fully open and others as buds. The petals are a bright, clean white, and the centers show a hint of yellow. The green leaves are glossy and provide a lush background for the white blooms. The lighting is bright, suggesting a sunny day.

Genesis 31:32 With whomsoever thou findest thy gods, let him not live: before our brethren discern thou what is thine with me, and take it to thee. For Jacob knew not that Rachel had stolen them.
