

Genesis 46:23 And the sons of Dan;
Hushim.

A vibrant garden scene featuring large red petunias and a dense cluster of small blue flowers in the foreground. The red flowers are in sharp focus, showing their five-petaled structure and rich color. The blue flowers are smaller and more numerous, creating a textured foreground. The background is filled with more red flowers, some slightly out of focus, and green foliage. The overall lighting is bright, suggesting a sunny day.
