

A close-up photograph of several vibrant red flowers, possibly gladioli, with green stems and leaves. The flowers are in various stages of bloom, with some fully open and others as buds. The background is softly blurred, showing more greenery and a textured surface on the right side. Overlaid on the image is white text in a serif font, which is the biblical verse Exodus 18:14.

Exodus 18:14 And when Moses' father in law saw all that he did to the people, he said, What is this thing that thou doest to the people? why sittest thou thyself alone, and all the people stand by thee from morning unto even?
