

A scenic waterfall cascading over rocks in a lush green forest. The water flows over several large, moss-covered rocks, creating a series of small waterfalls. The surrounding area is filled with vibrant green foliage, including ferns and other plants. The background shows a dense forest of tall trees, with sunlight filtering through the leaves. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and natural.

Exodus 18:19 Hearken now unto my voice, I will give thee counsel, and God shall be with thee: Be thou for the people to God ward, that thou mayest bring the causes unto God:
