

A close-up photograph of a small, green, fuzzy caterpillar on a plant stem. The caterpillar is positioned in the lower right quadrant of the frame. The background is a dense, textured mass of brown and tan dried plant matter, possibly a nest or a cluster of dead leaves. The lighting is bright, creating strong highlights and deep shadows. Overlaid on the image is a large, white, serif text block that reads: "Exodus 18:26 And they judged the people at all seasons: the hard causes they brought unto Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves." The text is centered horizontally and occupies the upper two-thirds of the image.
