

A close-up photograph of a branch with several clusters of blackberries. The berries are in various stages of ripeness, with some being bright red and others being dark purple/black. The leaves are green and serrated. The text is overlaid on the image in a white, serif font.

Numbers 04:04 This shall be the service of the sons of Kohath in the tabernacle of the congregation, about the most holy things: