

Numbers 04:33 This is the service of the families of the sons of Merari, according to all their service, in the tabernacle of the congregation, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

A group of approximately seven shorebirds, likely sandpipers or similar species, are wading in shallow, rippling water. The birds have mottled brown and white plumage on their backs and wings, with lighter underparts. They are scattered across the frame, some facing left and some right, with their heads lowered as if foraging. The water is a calm, greyish-brown color, and the background is a soft, out-of-focus expanse of water and sky.
