

Deutronomy 04:26 I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that ye shall soon utterly perish from off the land whereunto ye go over Jordan to possess it; ye shall not prolong your days upon it, but shall utterly be destroyed.

A close-up photograph of several purple flowers, likely pansies or similar, with vibrant purple petals and yellow centers. The flowers are in sharp focus in the foreground, while the background is softly blurred, showing more greenery and light.
