

A close-up photograph of sunlight filtering through dense green foliage. The light creates a bright, glowing area in the center, with rays of light extending outwards, creating a bokeh effect. The leaves are dark green and appear to be part of a tree or large shrub.

Deutronomy 10:07 From thence they journeyed unto Gudgodah;
and from Gudgodah to Jotbath, a land of rivers of waters.
