

A photograph of a garden with a prominent bush of white roses in the foreground. The roses are in various stages of bloom, with some fully open and others as buds. The leaves are dark green and glossy. In the background, there is a white trellis structure, possibly for a vine, and more greenery. The overall scene is bright and vibrant.

Deutronomy 11:14 That I will give you the rain of your land in his due season, the first rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil.
