

An aerial photograph of a rugged coastline. The sea is a deep blue, with white foam from waves crashing against dark, jagged rocks. The shoreline is a mix of dark rocks and lighter, sandy or pebbly areas. The overall scene is dramatic and natural.

1Sa 11:11 And it was [so] on the morrow, that Saul put the people in three companies; and they came into the midst of the host in the morning watch, and slew the Ammonites until the heat of the day: and it came to pass, that they which remained were scattered, so that two of them were not left together.
