

A dramatic seascape with a large wave crashing against a rocky shore under a cloudy sky. The water is turbulent and white with foam, and the sky is overcast with grey clouds. The overall tone is somber and powerful.

1Sa 29:08 And David said unto Achish,
But what have I done? and what hast thou found in thy servant so long as I have been with thee unto this day, that I may not go fight against the enemies
of my lord the king?