which were in Hebron, and to all the places where David himself
