

A background image of a stream flowing through dense green ivy. The water is clear and flows over a small waterfall or ledge on the left side. The ivy is thick and covers most of the scene, with some rocks visible on the right side.

1st Samuel 31:09 And they cut off his head, and stripped off his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to publish it in the house of their idols, and among the people.