

A close-up photograph of several vibrant purple flowers, likely petunias, with bright green leaves. The flowers are in various stages of bloom, with some fully open and others as buds. The background is a soft-focus green, creating a natural and serene setting for the text.

2nd Chronicles 24:01 Joash was seven years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Zibiah of Beersheba.